Goldsboro, North Carolina

“Sharing the Heart of Christ from the Heart of the City”

Volume LVI

February 23, 2010

Number 8

THE MISSION OF FIRST BAPTIST IS:

- to be dependent on God’s leadership;
- to grow in faith in Jesus Christ through worship, Bible study, prayer, and fellowship;
- to witness and minister to each other and to the larger community.

Please pray for CBF Field Personnel La Count Anderson. Anderson ministers in Northeastern NC in a new ministry to the poorest section of NC. He works with Faith House in Enfield, a homeless shelter for women and children, and Union Missions in Roanoke Rapids, a homeless shelter for men. These shelters are in need of food, materials, clothing and volunteers. Community gardens will begin in different towns in the area and churches can get involved through planting, harvesting and distribution.

You’ve Got The Time . . .To Listen to the Bible!
February 21 ~ April 4, 2010

Our listening together has begun.
We pray that God has been speaking to you through the scripture you have been listening to.

Join us on Wednesday nights after the fellowship supper for a time of reflection and sharing on the week’s scripture.

You’ve Got The Time to let God speak to your life. Blessings to you as you continue to listen and grow.

You've Got The Time . . . To Listen to the Bible

Questions to Consider as you listen this week

Week Two - February 28

Day 8: Mark 12-16

1. What was the parable that Jesus told against the chief priests, scribes and the elders?
2. Who put the greatest offering into the temple treasury? How much was it?
3. What did Jesus say would not pass away?
4. Describe Jesus' betrayal.
5. Who was set free when Jesus was crucified? What crime did he commit?

Day 9: Luke 1-4 - March 1

1. What circumstances surround the birth of John the Baptist?
2. Luke 2 contains the most familiar version of the birth of Jesus. What things did Mary ponder in her heart?
3. Who are the two people who were awaiting the birth of the Messiah?
4. What was the nature of John's baptism?
5. What are the three temptations Jesus faced in the wilderness? How does He respond to them?

Day 10: Luke 5-9 - March 2

1. What jobs did the disciples hold before following Jesus?
2. How are the beatitudes in Luke different from those in Matthew?
3. Who is likely to love the most?
4. Where do you fit in the Parable of the Sower?
5. How was the woman with the hemorrhage healed?

Day 11: Luke 10-13 - March 3

1. What provisions did the 72 men take with them?
2. Much of Jesus' teaching on prayer in chapter 11 is the same as in Matthew 6. What is noticeably different?
3. What treasures are you storing for the future?
4. How does Jesus bring division to the world?
5. Who is invited into the kingdom?

Day 12: Luke 14-19 - March 4

1. What was the relationship between the rich man and Lazarus? Why did Jesus tell this story?
2. What made one of the ten lepers different?
3. What was the purpose of the Parable of the Widow and the unjust judge?
4. What was the difference between the Pharisee and the tax collector?
5. What did Zacchaeus offer to do when Jesus came to his house?

Day 13: Luke 20-24 - March 5

1. What do the Sadducees not believe?
2. When people are persecuted and brought before governing authorities, what opportunity does it provide for them to do?
3. How did the disciples know where to prepare the Passover?
4. What charge was brought against Jesus? Was He found guilty?
5. According to Luke, Jesus makes three statements from the cross. What are they?

Day 14: John 1-5 - March 6

1. John's Gospel begins with creation. Yet, the same chapter includes the incarnation. What words does John use to describe the birth of Jesus?
2. What does John the Baptist call Jesus?
3. What is the first miracle that Jesus performs in the Gospel of John?
4. The most famous verse of the Bible is found in John 3. What does this reveal about God's love for us?
5. What did Jesus ask the woman of Samaria? What did He offer her?
